The 5-Part Review Script Framework:

Each part is built to grab attention, build trust, overcome objections, and close the sale.

✓ Part 1: Pattern Interrupt + Hook (0:00–0:20)

Objective: Stop viewers in their tracks with curiosity or emotion.

Examples:

- “What if you could launch a passive income site before your coffee even cools down?”
- “No writing. No coding. Just clicks and commissions—too good to be true?”

Prompt Template:

“Write a 20-second opening hook for a video reviewing [Product Name], using either a bold question, emotional statement, or surprising claim.”

✓ Part 2: Pain Point + Desire (0:20–1:00)

Objective: Relate to your audience’s frustrations and what they truly want.

Examples:

- “If you’ve ever tried to build a review site and ended up stuck in WordPress plugins, you’re not alone.”
- “We all want passive income—but not everyone has tech skills. That’s where this tool changes everything.”

Prompt Template:

“Add 3–4 sentences highlighting the core pain points users face in [niche] and how [Product] positions itself as the simple, smart solution.”

✓ Part 3: Product Reveal + Demo Summary (1:00–2:30)

Objective: Introduce the product clearly and show it solving the problem.

Examples:

- “AffiliatePages is an AI-powered review site builder that creates full review sites in minutes—with pros, cons, videos, and even comparison tables.”
- “I used it to build 3 affiliate sites in 2 days, and here’s what the process looks like...”

Prompt Template:

“Write a 60-second section summarizing what [Product] is, how it works, and why it’s faster or better than alternatives.”

✓ Part 4: Emotional Hook + Authority Proof (2:30–3:30)

Objective: Tap into emotion, credibility, and results to build trust.

Examples:

- “What blew my mind? The first review page I built got indexed in 24 hours and started getting clicks.”
- “It’s not just me—10,000+ marketers trust this tool, and it’s created by legends like Mike Filsaime.”

Prompt Template:

“Add a paragraph including emotional appeal (freedom, simplicity, income), user proof, and founder credibility to boost authority.”

✓ Part 5: Call to Action (3:30–4:00)

Objective: Drive urgency and tell viewers exactly what to do next.

Examples:

- “If you want to launch your own review empire with zero tech skills, grab AffiliatePages below.”
- “Click the link, watch the demo, and claim your bonuses before midnight tonight!”

Prompt Template:

“Write a strong, urgency-driven CTA with bonus mention, deadline, and emotional reinforcement.”
